From the President

Terrie Adkins

WOW! We are off to a great start this year! Our September meeting was very well attended and the excitement for all our new activities was electric! Our speaker, Jesse Hunter from state GREA gave us a lot of valuable information about how important it is to increase our state membership. I am so excited that we have 17 new state members as a result of that meeting. Let's keep that number growing so we can have an even greater voice at the state capitol in all matters where current and retired educators are involved. Remember, ADD (Automatic Direct Deduction) is the easiest and best way to sign up for state or local membership.

Our BRICK BY BRICK initiative is also off to a great start! We collected $60 dollars in our three boxes with the ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS leading the charge! In addition, we have an extra brick purchased entirely by his family to honor Ralph Greene. So, keep those dollars coming into your grade level boxes. We will certainly meet our goal of 5 bricks if you do!

Have you started reading THE LIGHTHOUSE, by Eugenia Price yet? Oh, my goodness, it is terrific reading! Historical fiction is a favorite genre of mine and since this series is about our beloved Georgia, I am so enthralled! My challenge to you is to read all three Eugenia Price books in the St. Simons series: 1) The Lighthouse, 2) New Moon Rising and 3) Beloved Invader. I plan to have read the first book by our December meeting, the second book by February and the third by April. Not sure I can even wait that long! READ WITH ME!

Our October visit to the GRE Museum was a great success! We had 17 members attend, followed by an amazing lunch at Crossroads Grill. Big thanks to Jan Calkins for organizing this field trip. In addition, we presented checks to Executive Director Bill Sloan for three new bricks donated by members of our unit! SMILES all around!

Remember that our November meeting is our annual Auction to fund the scholarship program. We hope to have a gift basket from each of our Gwinnett cities. I am gathering donations for Duluth, so Lawrenceville, Norcross, Suwanee, Buford, and Grayson, I hope you will each have baskets as well. Gift certificates, theme baskets and service certificates are all great sellers. Let's make this the BEST auction ever! Our auctioneers this year will again be Rep. Brooks Coleman and our own Nancy Harris. That is a winning combination for sure!

Look for the November luncheon reservation email from Barbara Wilson (who does a great job for us!) and remember - if you make a reservation, WE have to pay for your lunch even if you don't come. Please make attendance a priority when you reserve.

Blessings from your President, Terrie Adkins

Georgia Retired Educator Museum Field Trip

On Friday, October 19, seventeen of the GCREA members met at the Georgia Retired Educator's Museum in Flowery Branch and had a firsthand look at this museum established to honor educators. Dr. William (Bill) Sloan was our guide and if you have never met him, I believe all attendees would agree that he is a wealth of information about both the artifacts in the museum and the stories of former educators featured in the museum. Many of the attendees had already purchased a brick and enjoyed finding their brick among the hundreds outside the museum. Our group purchased 3 MORE bricks while we were there, some purchased by individuals and some by the whole group. Everyone left the museum with special memories of mimeographs machines, manual typewriters and card catalogues as well as reminders of the leaders of the Georgia Retired Educator Association who have gone before.

Following the tour, the group transitioned to Crossroad's Bar and Grille in Flowery Branch. We were well cared for by the team there and enjoyed the fellowship of getting to know members that may not be who we usually sit with at our luncheons. The trip was a great success, so much so we are already brainstorming ideas for a trip next year!

An Important Message from Judy Shaklee

The GCREA Auction for Scholarships is less than one month away. So far we have been promised donations of handmade jewelry, a brunch for ten, a handmade lazy Susan, a small handmade wine rack, crochet/knit items, gift certificate for a facial, a Duluth Basket, a Norcross Basket, a Taco Basket, a Creole Basket, a Gardening Basket, a Sip and Paint party for eight and other various items, but there are not nearly enough to raise the money that we need to fund our scholarships. What are you going to donate? Remember our success at this auction depends on each of us. See the attached donation letter that you can print and take to businesses and ask them to contribute. Also attached is the list of drop-off sites for your donations. Please let me know as soon as possible so that I can get our list complete.

What can you donate for the Auction?

Country Store: items that are in great condition but no longer in use at your house (glassware, serving pieces, books, all baked goods, candies, preserves, and other edible goodies). Some of these kinds of items may also be suitable for the silent auction.

Silent Auction: Themed gift baskets, seasonal collections, special services you can provide (decorating, organization, special holiday dishes, computer skills, handcrafted items).

Live Auction: Items that are at least $50 or more in value (brunch or lunch for a set number of people, intricate woodcraft or needlework project, art pieces, seasonal pieces of higher value, donations that you have solicited from businesses).

Solicit businesses in your cluster for donations for silent or live auction

Restaurant certificate, flower arrangement, massage, pedicure, manicure, decorative items, car wash, oil change, dry cleaning, health food, spa visit, gift items, chocolates, pastries, etc.

Donation letter can be found on the last page

Volunteer Forms

Since GREA has changed the emphasis from volunteers recording the hours they spend in community service to encouraging everyone to volunteer at least 10 times, we have had a lot more forms picked up. The new forms are very simple to fill out. They require only a date and a description of a minimum of 10 times the member has volunteered. Two people even turned their forms as soon as they got them at the last meeting and got their names in the drawing twice. These do not have to be new activities. Anything you did since March can go on your form. If you already gave me an old form, I will transfer your activities to the new form and enter you in the drawing.

The forms will be on your table as you arrive at the meeting on November 16. Fill them in there or take it home and return it at the December meeting. All forms must be in by the February meeting because the list of volunteers must be turned in to the state organization by March 1. The drawing for the fabulous prizes will be at the March meeting.

Georgia Retired Educators Day

On Thursday, October 25, Lawrenceville Mayor, Judy Jordan Johnson, presented a Proclamation by the city of Lawrenceville designating November 4th as Georgia Retired Educators Day. GCREA President, Terrie Adkins and Past President Joyce Parks, accepted the proclamation. They were accompanied by Publicity Chair, Beth Thompson, and Newsline Editor, Sharon Larkin.

Gwinnett County Retired Educators Association

A Non-Profit Organization #58-1592436

Each year the Gwinnett County Retired Educators Association sponsors an auction to help finance two scholarships and our community outreach programs. A scholarship is presented to a graduating high school senior who is pursuing a teaching career and a teacher who is currently teaching while working on an advanced degree. In our community we contribute to the Gwinnett Children's Shelter and the Ronald McDonald House. Members also act as volunteers in schools, reading to elementary students, assisting in libraries, and working school book fairs.

This letter authorizes our members to solicit items for our auction which will be held in November. As Auction chair, I am grateful to those members who are seeking support for our auction.

This year we are seeking items for our live auction (Value of at least $50). These items will be auctioned off by a member of our retired association, during our luncheon on November 16, 2018. We would appreciate any donation that you are willing to contribute. Businesses who contribute to the auction will be listed in our newsletter and on our website.

Some items which would be useful:

Services: free cut and style, massages, manicure and pedicure, free or reduced carpet cleaning, car washes, free oil changes, tire rotation

Gift Certificates: restaurant, buy one get one free, tanning, golf fees, hotel stay

Theme Items: College team items, garden items, scrapbook sets, jewelry, children's keepsakes, family keepsakes.

Any contribution

You may give your donation to the person presenting you this letter. You may also send gift certificates directly to me or email me to pick up your item. We appreciate your willingness to help us with the auction. We will need all items by November 6, 2018.
